

Jessica Rosas Posada, a native of Puebla, Mexico, is a vibrant soprano, voice pedagogue and Mexican Art Song specialist. Dr. Posada serves as Director of Voice Studies and Visiting Assistant Professor at Whitman College. Posada has presented conferences for the Texas Music Educators Association and the 12th Hispanic Heritage Festival at Palm Beach Atlantic University. Most recently, she has been invited to perform the concert “Canciones de Manuel M. Ponce: An Introduction to the Mexican Art Song Canon,” at both the National Association of Teachers of Singing 57th National Conference in 2022, and the 2021 Texoma NATS Region Artist Series.

Jackie Wood is a musician and teacher who loves playing chamber music, four-hand and two-piano literature, as well as solo repertoire. She is a Senior Lecturer at Whitman College and has also served on the music faculty of Washington State University. Ms. Wood has concertized in New York, Seattle, Texas, Japan and throughout the northwest region, and has adjudicated many young pianists in Oregon, Washington, and Idaho. A graduate of Whitman College, she earned her MMus, Piano Performance, from Washington State University. Ms. Wood has delighted in collaborating on many musical theatre and opera projects.