

Dr. Sarah Daughtrey (DM, Indiana University) is Vocal Area Coordinator at New Mexico State University. An active presenter and pedagogue, Dr. Daughtrey's diverse activities include participation in the Mentor program of SongFest at the Colburn School in Los Angeles; two recent performances at the College Music Society's 2016 and 2019 national conferences; and a lecture recital presentation for the 2016 Texoma Artist Series. She currently is under contract with Centaur Records for a new album featuring works for saxophone, piano and voice. Dr. Daughtrey serves as Rio Grande District Governor, and served as both Rio Grande and Allegheny Mountain chapter president.